

<< Back

13 Indianapolis non-profits to get $8M

Updated: Mar 11, 2011 12:00 AM EST

Indianapolis - Thirteen Indianapolis-area non-profit groups will share an $8 million gift.

The money is being donated by the Estate of Sara I. Reuben, who died in January 2010, and her late husband Albert G. Reuben who died in December 2002. Both were long-time residents of Indianapolis.

Enlarge this picture

Larry M. Reuben

Mrs. Reuben's son Larry Reuben, a local attorney, selected the recipients and distributions, in partnership with the Central Indiana Community Foundation.

According to the press release, "the donee organizations represent a broad cross-section of community needs and issues that were important to Larry's parents, including elder care, education, homelessness, mental health, civil rights and justice, women's health and reproductive rights, early childhood development, immigrant acculturation, human and animal rights and Jewish education, heritage and community welfare."

Following is the list of recipients of financial support from the estate of Sara I. Reuben, and projects associated with the support:

- The Albert G. and Sara I. Reuben College and Career Counseling Centers at the Excel Centers of Goodwill - $500,000
- Construction of The Albert G. and Sara I. Reuben Engagement Center in partnership with Coalition for Homelessness Intervention and Prevention (CHIP) - $750,000
- Humane Society of Indianapolis – To establish a second location in Fountain Square and facility upgrades - $500,000
- American Civil Liberties Union of Indiana for an educational initiative - $500,000
- The Immigrant Welcome Center - $1,000,000
- Albert G. and Sara I. Reuben ElderSource Program – To provide a menu of services designed to support "aging in place" options and populations - $600,000
- Planned Parenthood of Indiana – To support educational initiatives - $500,000
- The Julian Center – For construction of The Sara I. and Albert G. Reuben Counseling Center - $750,000
- CICF for Grameen Bank of Indiana – To help establish this micro-finance institution in Indianapolis - $1,000,000
- The Bureau of Jewish Education – To support technology needs for Hebrew language classes and Jewish education, including remote learning and Holocaust educational material provided to area teachers - $50,000
- United Way – To establish the Sara I. and Albert G. Reuben Endowment Fund for Early Childhood Development - $500,000

- Congregation Beth-El Zedeck – To support adolescent programming - $250,000
- The Robert A. and Sandra S. Borns Jewish Studies Program at Indiana University – $250,000
- WFYI to amplify the voice of the community in the areas of health, education, the arts and public affairs - $750,000

All content © Copyright 2002 - 2011 WorldNow and VideoIndiana, Inc., WTHR. All Rights Reserved.
For more information on this site, please read our Privacy Policy and Terms of Service. It is the policy of The Dispatch Broadcast Group to provide equal employment opportunity to all qualified individuals without regard to their race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, marital status, disability, military status, citizenship or any other legally-protected status in accordance with applicable local, state and federal law. Jobs at WTHR EEO Public File Report